

As a consumer currently on Indiana's Do-Not-Call list, I ask that the Commission reject the Consumer Bankers Association petition to preempt the Indiana statute prohibiting telemarketing calls to person and entities with which the caller has an exstablished business relationship.